Number 10.

R. C. Gilbert Home.

R. C. Gilbert, son of A. M. Gilbert of this city, came home Saturday, having received an honorable discharge.

Mr. Gilbert left Marion April 29, 1918 and went to Camp Taylor. He had only been there a short time when he was transferred to Camp Custer, in Michigan, where he stayed almost four months.

He was then transferred to the First division in August and ordered to France. He sailed from Hoboken on the British transport, Minnekaha to Liverpool and from there to Southampton, and finally landed at Lathure, France.

While "over there" he was in three offensives, the first being at Saizerais Sector, Aug. 7 to 24, the second at St. Mihiel Sept. 12 to 16, and the third at Argonne, Sept. 26 to Nov. 11. He received three bronze stars.

After the war he did duty on the line, but took advantage of the passes granted the soldiers and visited Belgium, the British Isles, and different parts of France. His ship arrived at New York August 30 and on September 10 he marched in the Victory Parade. He was also in the parade in Washington September 17th.

A Water Story.

Dave Moore has gone and dug him a well on his place and tells us that he only got down 36 feet when he struck water and now has 37 1-2 feet of water in the well and the water is running out over the top of that. This is because the casing of the well sticks out of the ground 18 inches. And the water is running out over the top of that. And some people wonder where Marion can get a water supply.

Quiet Wedding.

Mrs. Gretta Mae Holman and Mr. Thomas Hughes were married Monday at the home of W. H. Graves, the Rev. Jas. F. Price officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Sallie Holman of near Tolu and is a favorite among the people of her community.

Mr. Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Thomas of the Tolu section and is an enterprising young farmer.

The young couple will make their home in Repton.

Rev. Short Returns.

The many friends of Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Short will be pleased to learn that he has been returned to Marion as pastor of the Methodist church. This is Rev. Short's fourth year here and his estimable family have a host of friends in and around Marion.

Republican Speaker Here.

Prof. George Colvin, republican nominee for Superintendent of Public Instruction, spoke at Marion on last Friday in the Circuit court room of the court house to about two hundred enthusiastic voters of this county.

His speech was devoted principally to the interest of the schools and school books of this state, and was received well.

His hearers were all united in expressing their approval of Mr. Colvin's ideas along these lines.

News of the School.

After two weeks of study and fruitful school work, the different classes of the Marion High School met last Friday afternoon in their respective rooms and each formed an organization of its own.

The officers elected for the Senior class: Harry Moore, President; Margaret Hard, librarian; Willard Daugherty, treasurer; Jerry Rankin, class secretary; Willard Daugherty, assistant librarian of class; Dolie Enoch, head librarian of school; J. Henry, chief reporter of school.

The officers of the Junior class: Roberta Moore, president; Leoda McWhirter, vice-president; Watts Franklin, secretary and treasurer; Forrest Hammack, class librarian; Ruby Gahagen, assistant librarian; Vera Eskew, class reporter.

The officers of the Sophomore class: Willard Franks, president; Vida Bigham, vice president; Calvert Small, treasurer; Marie Lowery, librarian; Velda Elkins, assistant librarian; Martha Reed, reporter.

The Scumantian or girls literary society was organized with the following officers: Melba Williams, president; Vida Bigham, vice-president; Vera Eskew, secretary; Laura Butler, treasurer; Robbie Fowler, sergeant at arms.

The Mauthampan, or boys literary society was organized with the following officers: Hubert Crider, president; J. Henry, vice president; Charles Gibbs, secretary; Watts Franklin, treasurer; Otis Wheeler, corresponding secretary; Harry Moore, sergeant at arms; Billie Eskew, door keeper.

During the summer months many improvements were made on the school property, among which are the new sanitary toilets, remodeling the cottage on the school ground into a modern school room; a change was also made so as to insure plenty of fresh water at all times.

One new feature which greatly aids the agricultural student is the new well equipped laboratories.

Professor Christian, always awake to anything that concerns the school attended a meeting of the principals of most of the schools of western Kentucky at Dawson Springs a short time ago. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss interscholastic athletics and contests.

Look! Here is the globe spread out flat before your eyes. See those stars? Every star shows where a U. S. Navy ship was on September 2nd, 1919. The Navy travels the Seven Seas.

Don't you want to see the World?

ROMANCE is calling to you! Strange and smiling foreign lands are beckoning to you. Shove off and see the world!

Learn to "parley-vo" in gay Patee. See the bull-fights in Panama. See surf-riding on the beach of Waikiki.

Learn the lure that comes with the swish and swirl of the good salt sea. Eat well—free; dress well—free; sleep clean—free; and look 'em all straight in the eye—British, French, Chinese, Japanese, Spaniards, Egyptians, Algerians and all manner of people.

Come! Be a real man of the world. See the world. See it with the red-blooded, hard-working, hard-playing men of the U. S. Navy.

Pay begins the day you join. On board ship a man is always learning. Trade schools develop skill, industry and business ability. Thirty days care-free holiday each year with full pay. The food is good. First uniform outfit is furnished free. Promotion is unlimited for men of brains. You can enlist for two years and come out broader, stronger and abler.

The Moores Celebrate.

Judge and Mrs. James A. Moore were agreeably surprised—or the originators of the idea had supposed they would be—on Thursday Sept. 25th by the largest dinner ever given in Marion—the occasion being the 58th anniversary of their marriage in 1861. The place was at the home of John A. Moore, the time was at high noon and the banqueters were the numerous relatives of the highly esteemed Judge and his still blushing bride.

The conspirators who had hoped to keep their plans secret overlooked the fact that the popularity of the judge and his wife would defeat their ends for the "plans of mice and men often gang agla." Some of the plotters became too enthusiastic and inadvertently spread the glad tidings where they should not have been spread and consequently the genial old judge was chuckling to himself and telling his wife that these young folks can outget ahead of them. He said that the numerous details were more than appreciated largely because of the fact that he could see them being carried out without his "children knowing that he had observed them."

The preparations were exhaustive and called into service the skill of our local cooks and the justly famed barbecue experts—but the resulting roasted pig and other delicacies more than repaid the fortunate partakers of the luscious viands served a la cafeteria on the lawn.

All of the guests were told to help themselves to the culinary delights that tempted the eyes and makes your mouth have a wistful feeling and later gave rise to a feeling of complete satisfaction.

After the obsequies of the dinner the local photographer appeared on the scene and made a number of pictures of the crowd and of Mr. and Mrs. Judge. The most noted of the groups taken was that of the judge, his wife and little great grandson, Jim Al Moore with the little chap holding the wedding cake. He had just lispied the presentation speech when the picture was taken.

Those present were: Mrs. Levi Cook, Mrs. Bacon of Hopkinsville, A. C. Moore, D. B. Moore, R. E. Moore of Madisonville and John A. Moore, besides eighteen grandchildren and one great grandchild, also S. J. Daughtrey of Hebron and Billie Moore of Eldorado, Ill., brother and brother-in-law of the judge, and Miss Margaret Moore.

Letter From Sailor.

Brest, France, Aug., 19, 1919. Dearest Sis:

I guess you will be surprised to get a letter from me, but this is meant for all of you.

We arrived in Brest a week-ago last Saturday from Harwich, England. But I haven't received any mail from any of you yet. I have had two from Ethel, she said in her last letter that Ruby couldn't live much longer. I sure do feel sorrow for her, but it cannot be helped.

I guess you had some time in Paducah, I hope so anyway. Wish I could have been there, but it will be a long long time before I get back there, cause we go from here to Italy, Spain, Egypt, the Philippines and China, and I don't know how long the ship will be there. It will take three or four months for us to make the trip.

I will be sent back to the west coast when my four years are up and that will complete my trip around the World, some trip I say, but I had lots rather be at home. Do you ever see ———? I think I will write her a letter if I ever get time.

I am sending some pictures of my self and another chap on the ship, and one of me by my self. Take a good look at my mustache, you can hardly see it, I have cut it off though, I didn't like it one bit.

This leaves me in the best of health and I hope it will find all of you the same. Tell mother and father not to worry about me, and you be a good girl.

Love to all,
Your brother,
Willie.

Republicans are entitled to all the satisfaction they can get in discovering waste of public money during the war and charging it up to the Democratic Administration. There is undoubtedly abundant opportunity for probing in that field. But that money is spent. Whatever wastes there were are irrecoverable. And this current year a Republican Congress is authorizing the expenditure of six and a half billion dollars of public money. So far we see precious little evidence of any probing there.

The public knows the old game in which Democrats out of power pointed with horror to Republican extravagance and Republicans out of power pointed with horror to Democratic extravagance, and neither party when in power made any attempt at economical and efficient operation of the government. The public not only knows the game but is sick of it. Getting along ten feet with a budget system, for example, will win the Republicans more credit than exposing a mile of Democratic war waste.—Saturday Evening Post.

FIRE—WATER

We still have with us the magnificent pile of ruins to act as our daily reminder that this town has no waterworks. It has now reached the stage of ghastliness—speaking of the ruins on Main street. Surely there must be some way of getting something started in the way of a new building or two just to show outsiders that we are not dead anyhow—not to say anything about the urgent need for more business buildings in Marion.

And let's not forget the fact that this fire could have been extinguished with a very small loss if we had had any waterworks in Marion. From all appearances money is no object to the business men and residents of the city as it seems to be impossible to get up any enthusiasm for city water by talking of the immense saving in fire insurance premiums that would be ours—for the rates would be very much lower.

Maybe some day.—
But the only way to get anything is to go after it—and that applies to water as well as anything else.

Federal Highway.

L. L. Pearsall, chief engineer in charge of the location and construction of the Federal Highway from Louisville to Paducah, was here last Thursday and had a two hours' conference with the road commissioners of this county, relative to the Federal Highway, and left a very favorable impression on all who met him.

He is a very pleasant gentleman and attends strictly to the business in hand. He was accompanied by Nick Bosler, chief assistant to State Road Commissioner, Joe S. Boggs, and L. D. Hollinsworth, Divisional Road Engineer for the first Congressional District, whose headquarters are at Paducah, and who is well known here.

Mr. Pearsall stated—while here—that he would put a corps of surveyors, consisting of 35 men, in the field at once, beginning at Louisville, and would rush the work of survey specifications and plans to completion as rapidly as possible, and that the contracts would all be awarded early in the first part of 1920. He stated also that all bids for the construction of the road would be received at Frankfort for the whole line at the same time and that each county would be considered a unit and the County Road Commissioner as in the case of our county—would be consulted as to the letting of the contract and that the State Road Department would take no arbitrary action in any case.

This Federal Highway is to be a great road. It is to have an 18 foot metal or gravel surface, with a two-foot shoulder on each side, and a four-foot space on each side for drainage and shall have no grade to exceed 4%. And it is to be so constructed as to be practically indurtable, and to bear up and support the largest trucks, with the loads of many tons.

Robinson was introduced as auctioneer. The Shady Grove, Deanwood and Tribune string band furnished excellent music. The ladies were liberal in bringing pies and boxes and they all sold for a handsome price. Misses Bonnie Hopkins, Rosalie Dean and Ina Coleman were three candidates that made the race for the prettiest girl. Miss Ina Coleman was victorious and received the cake which sold for the handsome price of $40.42. Dr. McConnell received the pie for the ugliest man. Get A VIKING CREAM SEPARATOR

HERE'S the separator that has the world beaten for cream separating. Absolutely guaranteed to skim down to a mere trace.

A Viking user said the other day: "I have taken several tests of the separator and it has been separated in less than 24 hours and could not see a trace of cream!"

Get All the Cream With Less Work

The Viking is easiest to operate because it is the simplest and most scientifically constructed. It has less working parts. That makes it easier—without vibration or jar to disturb the natural separation or waste cream.

Guaranteed For a Lifetime
—and positively guaranteed to have a larger capacity per hour than other separators of equal rating. Come in and let us demonstrate a Viking to you.

Fell From Auto—Bone Broken.

Henry Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Wilson, suffered a compound fracture of the collar bone Monday afternoon when he attempted to climb from the front to the rear seat of a car driven by his brother Ben. He was thrown from the car and landed on his right shoulder with such force that the bone was badly broken.

The boys were returning from school in the Ford car used for hauling the children from the southeast to school. Henry was at the wheel when he was taken suddenly ill and asked his brother to drive. While attempting to climb to the rear of the car he fell to the ground.

The injured young man was brought to Dr. Remington's office where Dr. Remington removed the broken pieces of bone and reduced the fracture. He was taken to Greely Wednesday night on an X-ray picture of his shoulder might be taken. —From a Nunn, Colo. paper.

LEXINGTON MAN GIVES REASONS FOR HIS RELIEF

Johnson Thinks Benefits Gained Justify Flowing Tribute Paid Trintona

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 2.—"Because of relief I've gained I feel that I'm justified in saying that Trintona gave me more benefits than any other medicine I've ever taken," Russell Johnson, 66 years old, a retired furniture dealer and well known Lexington resident of 605 South Limestone street, said recently.

"For many years I've been troubled with constipation," he continued. "I had taken laxatives constantly. I would become so dizzy at times that I could hardly get around. I was nervous and restless at night—so bad I couldn't sleep. Headaches bothered me constantly.

"The relief I've gained in Trintona has caused me to hope that others will try the new medicine and become convinced as I have. My bowels act with clocklike regularity now. I don't experience the dizzy spells any more and my appetite is much better than before. I'm glad to recommend Trintona.

Mr. Johnson has voiced the opinion of thousands of people who have tried Trintona and found the perfect tonic to be unsurpassed as a reconstructive agency as well as a most successful combatant of stomach liver and bowel troubles, nervousness, sleeplessness, and the like.

Trintona is now being introduced and explained in Marion at J. H. Orme's drug store.

Dear Editor:

I agree with you heartily in your condemnation of that old bridge. But I don't think it near such a disgrace to the town as a baseball team that plays on the Sabbath day.

I am a firm believer in all kinds of clean sports for the young, and I like to hear of our boys winning.

But I am sure I voice the sentiments of every Christian man and woman in our county, when I ask the young men to refrain from playing baseball on the Lord's day.

Yours for better morals,
J. H. DEAN.
